

9.xii.2018

Dear Mr. Holness,

Would I be correct in saying that you went to France with a group of Wealden District Council executives between 1982 and 1992, the purpose of your visit being a “twinning” exercise?

Would I be correct in saying that your personal expenses were paid for from the public purse and this expenditure had previously been duly authorised by a vote?

Would I be correct in saying that you took your wife on this twinning trip?

Would I be correct in saying that your wife's expenses were paid for from the public purse and this expenditure had not been duly authorised by a vote?

If I do not receive a reply from you within fourteen days I will assume that your answers to these four questions is “yes”.

Yours,

C M Hudson.
